

PKP chooses partner for Kraków Główny development

January 20, 2015 Beata SochaLokale Immoibilia, Poland AM

Image : rynek-kolejowy.pl

Polish Railways PKP has selected GD&K Consulting for its partner in the re-development of the Kraków Główny Railway Station. The project will involve the construction of 21,000 sqm of office and retail space at the estimated cost of €55 million. Construction is set to be launched in 2017 and completed in 2019.